

ACCT230 : Intermediate Accounting

Comprehensive study of the principles, concepts, and techniques of accounting for assets and liabilities; reviews the accounting cycle and changing concepts of economic measurements and their application to business in a dynamic economy.

Credits 4

Lecture Hours 4

Lab/Clinical/Field Study Hours 0

Prerequisites

ACCT130, ACCT131, CISM125