

CRIM214 : Organized Crime

A foundation course in systematic criminality, which examines those criminal organizations whose method of operation includes fear, violence and corruption to achieve strategic and tactical goals. The course investigates these highly structured, perpetual organizations as well as law enforcement responses to them.

Credits 3

Lecture Hours 3

Lab/Clinical/Field Study Hours 0