

GEOG102: Introduction to Cultural Geography

Introductory course using the topic approach to geography. The course is concerned with social institutions, which are commonly shared by all societies, such as language, religion, technology and agriculture as found on the continents of Africa, Australia, Europe, Asia, and North and South America. Meets General Education requirement for Diversity and Social Science.

Credits: 3

Lab Hours: 0

Lecture Hours: 3

Program: Geography