

THEA208 : The Art and Craft of Playwriting

Provides students with an introductory understanding of the art and craft of playwriting, the basic concepts of storytelling and the terminology used with the three-act structure. Through a series of writing exercises, students will write a play. Emphasis will be on effective exposition, conflict, plot development and character development within the three-act structure.

Credits 3

Lecture Hours 3

Lab/Clinical/Field Study Hours 0

Prerequisite Courses

THEA110: Introduction to Theater