

Computers

Students have access to computers, laptops for in-library use, scanners, printers and photocopiers. Each library has a charging station. Assistive technology software is available on all computers. Various assistive technology devices are available.