

Cooperative Education

Cooperative Education courses allow students to receive college credits for working in jobs related to their major. These credits are supervised by faculty and are available to Atlantic Cape students whose major is Culinary. The Cooperative Education office is located in the Center for Student Success. Contact the office for more information at (609) 343-5085.