

Home Schooled Students

Home schooled students must meet the same admission criteria as high school students. Applicants are admitted as part-time, non-degree seeking students. Students may enroll in courses based on demonstrated level of academic proficiency through the College's next-generation ACCUPLACER or qualifying SAT/ACT scores. Upon completion of the course, credits earned will appear on an official college transcript.