

Reserve Collection

Each of the campus libraries has a reserve collection for students to use. This collection includes textbooks and can also include supplemental materials provided by the instructor. To ensure this collection is available to as many students as possible, items cannot leave the library. If you have a suggestion for a book you would like the library to provide, please let us know.