

ENGL218: Literature for Children

Study of the history and diversity of fiction, non-fiction and poetry written for children aged two through 14. Students will extensively read and evaluate samples of literature through the children's literary canon and develop criteria for selecting and using literature with children at various stages in their development.

Credits: 3

Lab Hours: 0

Lecture Hours: 3

Prerequisites:

ENGL101 with a grade of C or better

Program: English